COVID-19 considerations

Over 25 years have passed but ChemCon, the one of a kind live event where you can meet your knowledgeable peers from industry and authorities, continues to curate yet another 5-day conference in June 2022. We know many delegates are eager to meet face-to-face again and we are confident that ChemCon Europe 2022 in London will offer an excellent opportunity to do so. We expect all our delegates to follow the UK regulations (subject to change). As you may expect from us, we continue to keep a close eye on the global COVID-19 developments and possible COVID-19 measures to create a healthy and safe environment for all our delegates.
